Intelleyzy Recognized With 2020 Global Innovation Award

Organizational Change Management Consulting and L&D Firm Honored for Forward-Thinking Vision

WOBURN, Mass., March 17, 2020 (Newswire.com) - Intelleyzy, a consulting firm with focus on both organizational change management consulting and L&D (learning and development) services, has been awarded the prestigious 2020 Global Innovation Award by eLearning Journal in the category of Online Learning Library.

The eLearning Journal has awarded its annual eLearning AWARD to innovative projects and products in the areas of eLearning, Corporate Learning and L&D for the last nine years. The eLearning AWARD is one of the most important awards in the industry.

Intelleyzy was recognized for its online courses, known for both a sophisticated and exhortative approach. Intelleyzy-produced videos tap into 24/7 on-screen instructors with the objective to keep viewers engaged and attentive. Intelleyzy offers content for programs and technologies that are widely accessible and produces custom L&D content and training materials for clients with proprietary technologies.

Andrew Wight, the president and CEO of Intelleyzy, commented on Intelleyzy's newest accolade.

We are very excited to be recognized with this honor as we've worked hard to differentiate ourselves in the industry. In today's workplace, technology changes rapidly and it can be difficult for businesses to ensure adoption of technology investments takes place smoothly and effectively. That's where we step in.

Wight also commented on the importance of a strong management vision. "Leaders need to ensure their technology investments have the best chance to produce the positive ROI as intended - an important part of our work is to ensure the leadership within a company and its overarching culture both embrace learning and needed change, and that employees are actively engaged."

Intelleyzy is dedicated to continuing to merge its L&D capabilities with the growing change management side of the business.

About Intelleyzy

Established in 2016, Intelleyzy partners with organizations to ensure technology investments have the best chance for adoption and success. The company provides both organizational change management consulting services, in addition to a wide offering of learning and development (L&D) products and services, and an accompanying team of highly skilled experts. On the L&D side, Intelleyzy offers a total of around 185 standard courses and over 8,000 microlessons/lectures, with courses ranging from Microsoft Office and Adobe products to technical skills and leadership topics. Intellezy Awarded Best Content Honors

WOBURN, Mass., September 24, 2020 (Newsire.com) - Intellezy, a consulting firm with a focus on both organizational change management consulting and L&D (learning and development) services, has won two prestigious awards from TCWG (The Craig Weiss Group).

Intellezy was honored to receive the following Best Third-Party Content Awards:

- First Place for Best Technology Content
- Second Place for Overall Content

Judges looked at a wide range of areas when determining winners, including video, animation, audio quality, as well as ADA508 (or similar) support. In addition, heavy weight was given to the content's usefulness, interactivity, engagement, and how the content will work in real-world scenarios.

Andrew Wight, the president and CEO of Intellezy, commented on this recognition.

Our entire team has worked tirelessly to create, develop and refine our innovative products, and these awards from the Craig Weiss Group bring to light our excellence of our technology-focused content. We are committed to continuously raise the bar for all content we develop and ensure it remains world-class and up to the highest of standards to meet the needs of our clients.

“We are also honored to receive these awards as the L&D capabilities and offerings of our business are essential drivers for extensive organizational change capabilities of Intellezy. We are dedicated to continuing to merge our L&D capabilities with the growing change management side of the business to help companies across a wide range of industries drive toward lasting and successful adoption.”

PRESS RELEASE

Intelleyzy Recognized With Official Microsoft Partner Status

WOBURN, Mass., November 17, 2020 (Newswire.com) - Intelleyzy, a leading organizational change consultancy with a focus on both organizational change management guidance and L&D (learning and development) services, has achieved official recognition and has been named an authorized Microsoft Partner.

Microsoft partner status demonstrates best-in-class capabilities paired with a high level of technical Microsoft excellence. In addition, this certification recognizes the commitment of a company to ensure clients have a productive, collaborative, and secure workplace environment.

Intelleyzy has also announced it will collaborate closely with TechNet UC, LLC, a cloud solution company and Microsoft Gold Partner that provides solution design, migration and cloud optimization services and has years of Microsoft 365 and Azure experience.

Andrew Wight, the president and CEO of Intelleyzy, shared what the Microsoft's recognition and this new partnership mean to the team.

Microsoft has now validated our best-in-class capabilities, and we look forward to deepening our working relationship with the organization. By partnering with TechNet UC, one of the most trusted and respected system integrators in the industry, we are able to provide an end-to-end seamless solution for clients.

"Together, we will bring excellence in the implementation of technology solutions. Importantly we also provide industry-leading L&D components and organizational change guidance that will ensure the adoption of technology assets - and the business success of our clients - over the long term," Wight continued.

Matthew Groom, Managing Partner at TechNet UC, shared his thoughts about this partnership.

"It is clear that a successful digital transformation journey needs to include both the technical and human side. TechNet UC has differentiated itself by committing to become experts in technology design, implementation, and integration. By partnering with Intelleyzy, we are able to provide our customers a Microsoft Partner that has expertise in the human side of the transformation as well.

"Intelleyzy's change management program enables users to adopt and embrace these new capabilities, resulting in achieving the desired business outcomes and continued return on investment," Groom continued. "Our new partnership enables a complete solution as Intelleyzy focuses on ensuring employees understand and adopt the new technology, and looks at the change management platform of the entire organization."

Intelleyzy Presenter and Thought Leader Sponsor at CHG MGMT Global Connect 2021

WOBURN, Mass., June 7, 2021 (NewsWire.com) - Intelleyzy, a consulting firm with a focus on organizational change management consulting, L&D (learning and development) services, and staff augmentation, will present at the upcoming Association of Change Management Professionals (ACMP) virtual conference, CHG MGMT Global Connect, and is recognized as a Thought Level Sponsor.

On June 9 at 1:30 p.m., Intelleyzy's Pamela Conway, Chief Learning Officer, and Davis Smith, VP of Organizational Readiness, will speak on Digital Transformation: Engaging Everyone's Potential.

The pair of experts will dive into the true meaning behind the concept of digital transformation. As Conway explains, Transformation at its core is about embracing possibilities and creating a culture open to change. It's much more than the implementation of technology and is certainly not just the installation of a new technology within an organization.

Smith expanded with her thoughts on what it takes to embrace change:

Lasting, impactful change starts with strong leadership, and includes active plans to mitigate disruption. The change must also include a commitment to engage an entire team's potential.

Intelleyzy's team invites conference attendees to attend the chat session with Conway and Davis, and to also set up pre-conference appointments with the Intelleyzy team to learn more about change management and digital transformation.

Intelleyzy is recognized as an industry leader in the change management space and was previously named one of the first authorized Microsoft Partners. This designation recognizes Intelleyzy's best-in-class capabilities paired with a high level of technical Microsoft excellence.

Intellezy Named to Inc. Magazine's Annual List of America's Fastest-Growing Private Companies

WOBURN, Mass., September 20, 2021 - Intellezy, a consulting firm with a focus on organizational change management consulting, L&D (learning and development) services, and staff augmentation, has been named to the Inc. 5000.

This annual list from Inc. Magazine is the most prestigious ranking of the nation's fastest-growing private companies and represents a unique look at the most successful companies within the American economy's most dynamic segment — its independent small businesses.

Andrew Wight, the CEO of Intellezy, shared what the recognition means to the company.

To be recognized by Inc. as one of the fastest-growing U.S. companies is a remarkable achievement. To have done it during a pandemic makes me appreciate the award all the more so as it speaks to the hard work and dedication of each and every employee at our firm. I am extremely honored and proud of the entire Intellezy team for what they accomplished and I'd like to also express my thanks to our many clients and partners who also made this award possible."

The Inc. 5000 list has been produced every year since 1982 and analyzes company data to recognize the fastest-growing privately held businesses in the United States.

Companies on the 2021 Inc. 5000 are ranked according to percentage revenue growth from 2017 to 2020. To qualify, companies must have been founded and generating revenue by March 31, 2017. They must be U.S.-based, privately held, for-profit, and independent—not subsidiaries or divisions of other companies—as of December 31, 2020.

PRESS RELEASE

Intelleyzy Named One of The Americas' Fastest Growing Companies of 2022 by the Financial Times

WOBURN, Mass., May 12, 2022 (Globe Newswire) - Intelleyzy, a consulting firm with a focus on organizational change management consulting, L&D (learning and development) services, and staff augmentation, has been recognized as one of The Americas' Fastest-Growing Companies of 2022 by the Financial Times.

The Financial Times completed its third annual ranking to capture many aspects of a company's financial health, including an organization's resilience and ability to adapt to the COVID pandemic. Through this ranking, the Financial Times also wanted to identify enterprises that contribute most heavily to economic growth. From 2017 to 2020, Intelleyzy experienced a 330% growth and is positioned as number 254 in the new Financial Times rankings.

Andrew Wight, the CEO of Intelleyzy, shared the importance of the recognition from the Financial Times.

Our company has weathered the last two-plus years very successfully, which is a testament to our employees, the strength of our business model, and the value we provide to our clients. As always, I have to express my gratitude to our amazing team, clients, and partners for their contributions to Intelleyzy's success. The future is bright for our company, and we look forward to continuing to help our clients achieve their future goals as well.

The Financial Times compiled this list in conjunction with Statista, a company globally-recognized as a leading provider of market data. This list of the 500 fastest-growing companies across North and South America ranks organizations by their compound annual growth rate (CAGR) in revenue from 2017 to 2020. The Financial Times utilizes a rigorous screening process coupled with sign-off from senior executives on the figures submitted by their companies to ensure there is meaningful insight into the health of these companies.
